AGREEMENT OF THE PARTIES

Defendant agrees to plead guilty to Count One of the Indictment charging him with conspiring with co-defendant Margaret Hunter to knowingly and willfully convert Duncan D. Hunter for Congress Campaign Committee (the "Campaign") funds to personal use by using them to fulfill personal commitments, obligations, and expenses that would have existed irrespective of Defendant's election campaign and duties as a federal officeholder, in amounts of $25,000 and more in a calendar year, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371.

As part of this Plea Agreement ("Agreement"), at the time of sentencing the United States will move to dismiss the remaining counts against Defendant contained in the Indictment in this case (18CR3677-W). The United States agrees not to prosecute Defendant on any of the dismissed charges, unless Defendant breaches this Agreement or it is set aside for any reason. Defendant expressly waives all defenses, including the statute of limitations and the Double Jeopardy Clause, to the reinstatement of any charges dismissed pursuant to this Agreement.

Defendant also agrees to give up all rights to appeal and to collaterally attack every aspect of the conviction and sentence. Defendant acknowledges that Defendant has discussed the rights Defendant is giving up in this Agreement and that Defendant is knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily giving up those rights to appeal and to collaterally attack each and every aspect of the conviction and sentence.

П

NATURE OF THE OFFENSE

A. ELEMENTS EXPLAINED

The conspiracy to which Defendant is pleading guilty has the following elements:

- 1. Beginning no later than 2010, and continuing up to and including at least 2016, there was an agreement between Defendant and Margaret Hunter to knowingly and willfully convert Campaign funds to personal use by using them to fulfill personal commitments, obligations, and expenses that would have existed irrespective of Defendant's election campaign and duties as a federal officeholder, in amounts of $25,000 and more in a single calendar year, in violation of Title 52, United States Code, Section 30109(d) and 30114(b);
- 2. Defendant became a member of the conspiracy knowing of at least one of its objects and intending to help accomplish it; and

3. One of the members of the conspiracy performed at least one overt act for the purpose of carrying out the conspiracy.

B. ELEMENTS UNDERSTOOD AND ADMITTED—FACTUAL BASIS

Defendant has fully discussed the facts of this case with defense counsel. Defendant has committed each element of the crime and admits that there is a factual basis for this guilty plea. Defendant admits that the following facts are true and undisputed:

- 1. Beginning no later than 2010, and continuing up to and including at least 2016, Defendant and Margaret Hunter (together, "the Hunters") agreed to knowingly and willfully convert Campaign funds to personal use by using them to fulfill personal commitments, obligations, and expenses that would have existed irrespective of Hunter's election campaign and duties as a federal officeholder, in amounts of $25,000 and more in a single calendar year, in violation of Title 52, United States Code, Section 30109(d) and 30114(b).
- 2. The object of the conspiracy was for the Hunters to convert Campaign funds for their own personal benefit and enjoyment, and for the personal benefit of others with whom they had personal relationships.
- 3. Defendant became a member of the conspiracy knowing of its object and intending to help accomplish it.
- 4. Throughout the relevant period, Defendant and Margaret Hunter each concealed the personal nature of many of their campaign expenditures by either falsely stating the expenses were "campaign related" or by falsely reporting the item or service purchased when providing information to the Treasurer.
- 5. In furtherance of the conspiracy, Defendant and Margaret Hunter performed a number of overt acts, including:
 - a. On or about August 28, 2011, in Coronado, California, Defendant spent $511.03 in Campaign funds at the Hotel del Coronado to take his wife and children out for a family celebration for his daughter's birthday. To conceal and disguise these personal charges, Defendant falsely informed his Treasurer that all the charges were "campaign related."

Def. Initials

- b. On or about June 24, 2016, in Washington, D.C., Defendant spent $409.54 in Campaign funds at L'Hommage Bistro Français for a social outing with several of his closest friends.
- 6. In total, throughout the relevant period, the Hunters illegally converted more than $150,000 in Campaign funds to purchase goods and services for their personal use and enjoyment, and engaged in 30 or more illegal transactions using Campaign funds for personal use.

Ш

PENALTIES

The crime of Conspiracy, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371, carries the following penalties:

- A. a maximum of 5 years in prison;
- B. a maximum of 3 years of supervised release;
- C. a maximum $250,000 fine;
- D. a mandatory special assessment of $100; and
- E. if a term of imprisonment is imposed, a term of supervised release of up to 3 years. Failure to comply with any condition of supervised release may result in revocation of supervised release, requiring Defendant to serve in prison, upon revocation, all or part of the statutory maximum term of supervised release.

IV

DEFENDANT'S WAIVER OF TRIAL RIGHTS

This guilty plea waives Defendant's right at trial to:

- A. Continue to plead not guilty and require the Government to prove the elements of the crime beyond a reasonable doubt;
- B. A speedy and public trial by jury;
- C. The assistance of counsel at all stages;
- D. Confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses;

- E. Testify and present evidence and to have witnesses testify on behalf of Defendant; and
- F. Not testify or have any adverse inferences drawn from the failure to testify.

 \mathbf{V}

DEFENDANT ACKNOWLEDGES NO PRETRIAL RIGHT TO BE PROVIDED WITH IMPEACHMENT AND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE INFORMATION

Any information establishing the factual innocence of Defendant known to the undersigned prosecutor in this case has been turned over to Defendant. The Government will continue to provide such information establishing the factual innocence of Defendant. If this case proceeded to trial, the Government would be required to provide impeachment information for its witnesses. In addition, if Defendant raised an affirmative defense, the Government would be required to provide information in its possession that supports such a defense. By pleading guilty Defendant will not be provided this information, if any, and Defendant waives any right to this information. Defendant will not attempt to withdraw the guilty plea or to file a collateral attack based on the existence of this information.

VI

DEFENDANT'S REPRESENTATION THAT GUILTY PLEA IS KNOWING AND VOLUNTARY

Defendant represents that:

A. Defendant has had a full opportunity to discuss all the facts and circumstances of this case with defense counsel and has a clear understanding of the charge and the consequences of this plea. By pleading guilty, Defendant may be giving up, and rendered ineligible to receive, valuable government benefits and civic rights, such as the right to vote, the right to possess a firearm, the right to hold office, and the right to serve on a jury. The conviction in this case may subject Defendant to various collateral consequences, including but not limited to revocation of probation, parole, or supervised release in another case; debarment from government contracting; and suspension or revocation of a

- professional license, none of which can serve as grounds to withdraw Defendant's guilty plea;
- B. No one has made any promises or offered any rewards in return for this guilty plea, other than those contained in this agreement or otherwise disclosed to the Court;
- C. No one has threatened Defendant or Defendant's family to induce this guilty plea; and
- D. Defendant is pleading guilty because Defendant is guilty and for no other reason.

VII

AGREEMENT LIMITED TO U.S. ATTORNEY'S OFFICE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

This Agreement is limited to the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of California, and cannot bind any other authorities in any type of matter, although the Government will bring this agreement to the attention of other authorities if requested by Defendant.

VIII

APPLICABILITY OF SENTENCING GUIDELINES

The sentence imposed will be based on the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a). In imposing the sentence, the sentencing judge must consult the United States Sentencing Guidelines (Guidelines) and take them into account. Defendant has discussed the Guidelines with defense counsel and understands that the Guidelines are only advisory, not mandatory. The Court may impose a sentence more severe or less severe than otherwise applicable under the Guidelines, up to the maximum in the statute of conviction. The sentence cannot be determined until a presentence report is prepared by the U.S. Probation Office and defense counsel and the Government have an opportunity to review and challenge the presentence report. Nothing in this agreement limits the Government's duty to provide complete and accurate facts to the district court and the U.S. Probation Office.

IX

SENTENCE IS WITHIN SOLE DISCRETION OF JUDGE

This Agreement is made pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(B). The sentence is within the sole discretion of the sentencing judge who may impose the maximum sentence provided by statute. It is uncertain at this time what Defendant's sentence will be. The Government has not made and will not make any representation about what sentence Defendant will receive. Any estimate of the probable sentence by defense counsel is not a promise and is not binding on the Court. Any recommendation by the Government at sentencing also is not binding on the Court. If the sentencing judge does not follow any of the parties' sentencing recommendations, Defendant will not withdraw from this Agreement.

X

PARTIES' SENTENCING RECOMMENDATIONS

A. SENTENCING GUIDELINE CALCULATIONS

Although the parties understand that the Guidelines are only advisory and just one factor the Court will consider under 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) in imposing a sentence, the United States and Defendant will jointly recommend the following Base Offense Level, Specific Offense Characteristics, Adjustments, and Departures:

Base Offense Level [USSG §2X1.1 / §2C1.8]	8
Value [USSG §2C1.8(b) / §2B1.1(b)(1)(F)]	+10
More than 30 Transactions [USSG §2C1.8(b)(4)]	+2
Abuse of Position of Trust [USSG §3B1.3]	+2
Acceptance of Responsibility [USSG §3E1.1]	-3
Departure / Variance [USSG §5K2.0 / 18 USC § 3553(a)]	-4 ¹

¹ The parties agree that a four-level departure or variance from the applicable Guidelines range is appropriate to account for Defendant's military service and wartime deployments, which will be further detailed in the Government's sentencing memorandum.

Departure / Variance [USSG §5K2.0 / 18 USC § 3553(a)]

-4²

B. ACCEPTANCE OF RESPONSIBILITY

Despite paragraph A above, the Government need not recommend an adjustment for Acceptance of Responsibility if Defendant engages in conduct inconsistent with acceptance of responsibility including, but not limited to, the following:

- 1. Fails to truthfully admit a complete factual basis as stated in the plea at the time the plea is entered, or falsely denies, or makes a statement inconsistent with, the factual basis set forth in this agreement;
 - 2. Falsely denies prior criminal conduct or convictions;
 - 3. Is untruthful with the Government, the Court or probation officer; or
 - 4. Breaches this plea agreement in any way.

C. FURTHER ADJUSTMENTS AND SENTENCE REDUCTIONS INCLUDING THOSE UNDER 18 U.S.C. § 3553

Defendant may request or recommend additional downward adjustments, departures, or variances from the Sentencing Guidelines under 18 U.S.C. § 3553. The Government will oppose any downward adjustments, departures, or variances not set forth in Section X, paragraph A above.

D. NO AGREEMENT AS TO CRIMINAL HISTORY CATEGORY The parties have no agreement as to Defendant's Criminal History Category

The parties have no agreement as to Defendant's Criminal History Category.

E. "FACTUAL BASIS" AND "RELEVANT CONDUCT" INFORMATION

The facts in the "factual basis" paragraph of this agreement are true and may be considered as "relevant conduct" under USSG § 1B1.3 and as the nature and circumstances of the offense under 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a)(1).

² The parties agree that a four-level departure or variance from the applicable Guidelines range is appropriate, to account for Defendant's medical history, his role in the offense, his family circumstances, and other personal characteristics warranting a reduced sentence from the Guidelines in this case that shall be further detailed in the Government's sentencing memorandum.

F. PARTIES' RECOMMENDATIONS REGARDING CUSTODY

The Government will recommend that Defendant be sentenced within the advisory guideline range recommended by the Government at sentencing.

G. SPECIAL ASSESSMENT/FINE

The parties will jointly recommend that Defendant pay a special assessment in the amount of $100 to be paid forthwith at time of sentencing. Special assessments shall be paid through the office of the Clerk of the District Court by bank or cashier's check or money order made payable to the "Clerk, United States District Court."

The parties have no agreement as to any fine that may be imposed.

H. SUPERVISED RELEASE/PROBATION

If the Court imposes a term of supervised release, Defendant will not seek to terminate early before completing at least 2/3 of the term. If the Court imposes a term of probation, Defendant will not seek to reduce the term or terminate early.

XI

DEFENDANT WAIVES APPEAL AND COLLATERAL ATTACK

Defendant waives (gives up) all rights to appeal and to collaterally attack every aspect of the conviction and sentence. The only exception is Defendant preserves a challenge to the voluntariness of this waiver based on ineffective assistance of counsel.

XII

BREACH OF THE AGREEMENT

Defendant and Defendant's attorney know the terms of this agreement and shall raise, before the sentencing hearing is complete, any claim that the Government has not complied with this agreement. Otherwise, such claims shall be deemed waived (that is, deliberately not raised despite awareness that the claim could be raised), cannot later be made to any court, and if later made to a court, shall constitute a breach of this agreement.

Defendant breaches this agreement if Defendant violates or fails to perform any obligation under this agreement. The following are non-exhaustive examples of acts constituting a breach:

- 1. Failing to enter into this agreement;
- 2. Failing to appear in court;
- 3. Attempting to withdraw the agreement;
- 4. Failing to abide by any court order related to this case;
- 5. Appealing (which occurs if a notice of appeal is filed) or collaterally attacking the conviction or sentence in violation of Section XI of this agreement; or
- 6. Engaging in additional criminal conduct from the time of arrest until the time of sentencing.

If Defendant breaches this agreement, Defendant will not be able to enforce any provisions, and the Government will be relieved of all its obligations under this agreement. For example, the Government may pursue any charges including those that were dismissed, promised to be dismissed, or not filed as a result of this agreement (Defendant agrees that any statute of limitations relating to such charges is tolled indefinitely as of the date all parties have signed this agreement; Defendant also waives any double jeopardy defense to such charges). In addition, the Government may move to set aside the agreement. Defendant may not withdraw the agreement based on the Government's pursuit of remedies for Defendant's breach.

Additionally, if Defendant breaches this agreement, (i) any statements made by Defendant, under oath, at the guilty plea hearing (before either a Magistrate Judge or a District Judge); (ii) the factual basis statement in Section II.B in this agreement; and (iii) any evidence derived from such statements is admissible against Defendant in any prosecution of, or any action against, Defendant. This includes the prosecution of the charge(s) that is the subject of this agreement or any charge(s) that the prosecution agreed to dismiss or not file as part of this agreement, but later pursues because of a breach by the Defendant. Additionally, Defendant knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently waives any argument that the statements and any evidence derived from the statements should be suppressed, cannot be used by the Government, or are inadmissible under the United States Constitution, any statute, Rule 410 of the Federal Rules of Evidence, Rule 11(f) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and any other federal rule.

XIV

CONTENTS AND MODIFICATION OF AGREEMENT

This agreement embodies the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes any other agreement, written or oral. No modification of this agreement shall be effective unless in writing signed by all parties.

XV

DEFENDANT AND COUNSEL FULLY UNDERSTAND AGREEMENT

By signing this agreement, Defendant certifies that Defendant has read it. Defendant has discussed the terms of this agreement with defense counsel and fully understands its meaning and effect.
